National Institute for Unification Education

Working Together: Peace and Unification

Prospects for a unified Korea are inextricably linked to world peace. The National Institute for Unification Education seeks to fulfill its role and responsibility in overcoming the structural-based security dilemma that arises from mistrust, and cultivate a culture of mutual respect and understanding.

NIU also provides various educational programs, content, and information in the hopes of becoming a cornerstone for empathetic exchanges required for the peace and prosperity of the Korean peninsula.

National Institute for Unification Education will continuously lay the foundation for peaceful unification with the cooperation and support of international society.

Jun Kee BAEK
President of National Institute for Unification Education

Objective of Unification Education

To promote understanding on the necessity and practicality of unification from various viewpoints

To enhance comprehensive understandings of national security

To establish a balanced perspective on North Korea

To foster the necessary values and practical ideas for peace

To strengthen the capacity for democratic citizenship
